Educational Philosophies Definitions and Comparison Chart Progressivists believe that education should focus on the whole child, rather than on the content or the teacher. This educational philosophy stresses that students should test ideas by active experimentation. Learning is rooted in the questions of learners that arise through experiencing the world. It is active, not passive. Education: Interview with David W. Nicholson - Routledge Socrates states, "Philosophy begins in wonder." Wittgenstein claims, "Philosophy is not a theory but an activity." Combining these two ideas, this textbook views the study of philosophy as a "wonder activity." The textbook focuses on conducting inquiry by asking questions and observing philosophy of education in action.
